

PROFILES

David Nelson – President

David Nelson is a Founding Partner and Principal of T&N Van Service. Mr. Nelson's nineteen years at T&N is complimented by an additional sixteen years of industry experience. Under Mr. Nelson's leadership, T&N has become the most highly regarded corporate mover in Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley. The unwavering focus on customer service Mr. Nelson demands of his staff and his innovative ideas in commercial relocations are driving forces behind the success of T&N.

Kenneth Taddei – Vice President

Kenneth "Ken" Taddei is a Founding Partner and Principal of T&N Van Service. Ken's nineteen years at T&N is complimented by an additional eight years of industry experience. Ken has focused his efforts at T&N on distribution, logistical management and corporate relocation. He has worked extensively in the capacities of both Project Manager and Supervisor.

Donald Taddei – Senior Project Manager

Donald "Don" Taddei is a Founding Partner and Principal of T&N Van Service. Don's nineteen years experience at T&N is complemented by an additional dozen years of industry experience. As a Project Manager, Don becomes involved in a relocation as soon as T&N is engaged by a client. He will participate in all phases of a project, including planning, move meetings, coordination of vendors, move participation, performance and post-move follow-up. Don has successfully managed hundreds of corporate relocation projects.

Robert Fowler – Vice President of Sales

Robert “Bob” Fowler has three decades of relocation and logistical services experience. In that time he has worked in every capacity in the industry. Bob has been with T&N for fifteen years, in which time he has focused on corporate relocations and logistical services. Bob has established accounts with many of the largest and most prestigious firms in Philadelphia and the greater Delaware Valley. Bob can identify the logistic needs of clients and develop a plan to satisfy those needs in the most cost-efficient manner possible. Upon engagement of T&N, Bob will work with T&N’s project management staff to successfully complete a client’s relocation.

Russell Taddei, Jr – General Manager

Russell Taddei, Jr. has more than two decades of experience in the moving and storage industry. He is a founding partner of T&N Van Service. Russell brings extensive knowledge of the commercial relocation trade to our clients in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Russell oversees the ongoing daily operational, financial, and administrative and compliance/legal matters of company.

Michael Seaver – Project Manager

Michael “Mike” Seaver has been employed by T&N Van Service as a Project Manager for the last twelve years. In that time, Mike has coordinated the relocation of literally thousands of individuals. As a Project Manager, Mike enters a project as soon as T&N is engaged. He will participate in the planning process, in move meetings, in preparation phases, in actual relocation activity and in post-move completion confirmation. Mike will organize your relocation into a series of tasks which will result in the successful completion of your project.

Edward Hollenbaugh – Project Supervisor

Edward “Ed” Hollenbaugh had been a dedicated employee of T&N Van Service for more than ten years. He has spent extensive time working in the capacity of Project Supervisor. Ed works closely with client contacts, other vendors and our crews during the performance of relocation projects. He has repeatedly demonstrated an impressive ability to overcome unforeseen obstacles and complete projects in an efficient and timely manner.

Richard Yearicks – Project Supervisor

Richard “Rick” Yearicks had been a dedicated employee of T&N Van Service for more than ten years. He has spent extensive time working in the capacity of Project Supervisor. Rick works closely with client contacts, other vendors and our crews during the performance of relocation projects. He has repeatedly demonstrated an impressive ability to overcome unforeseen obstacles and complete projects in an efficient and timely manner.

John Irvin – Project Manager

John Irvin has worked in the moving industry for approximately twelve years; ten of those years have been spent with T&N Van Service. John’s career with T&N began as a helper. He eventually worked his way into a permanent position in the warehouse. John later secured his Commercial Driver’s License, and spent several years working and perfecting both the commercial relocations and the ATM business. He has spent the last five years managing and directing some rather large and difficult moving projects. John has shown a keen affinity, through hard work and dedication, for pulling off the impossible. If your project looks hopeless or requires someone with special abilities, John is your man.